The wagon was demolished and the horses killed. When the train reached the next station, the engine showed that a part of a horse was still carried upon the pilot. Buck lived at Green Oak. Serious Collision.

SAULT STE MARIE, Sept. 7.—The most serious collision that the Sault river has had for several years occurred Thursday at 4 P. M. The tug William Goodnow, bound down, towing the schooners John O'Neil, George D. Russell and Kate Winslow, met the steamship Northern of Ward's line, bound up, a little below Little Lake George, at Garden river, nearly abreast of McClellan's saw mill, the tow and steamer passing on their proper sides.

The steamer, through some unaccountable cause, sheered into the tow and struck the George D. Russell, the middle vessel, in the bluff of her port bow and entered her clear to her foremast. The Russell sank in from two to three minutes in not less than seven fathoms, with but two spars above water. The sinking of the vessel was so sudden that two and perhaps three lives were lost, one of them being a woman. The steamer Northern sustained comparatively little damage, her false stem being carried away from above water to the fore-foot, and her upper bulwarks carried away by the falling spar of the Russell up to her pilot house. The George D. Russell was loaded with Republic ore from Marquette, and had a cargo of 1,276 tons; her government tonnage 658, and port of call Buffalo. Capt. Shepard of the Northern was very reticent about the collision, but from what could be gleaned his steamer sheered into the tow; he being on the watch himself assisted the man at the wheel to put the helm over to avoid a collision. The tow-line between the John O'Neil and the Russell was an unusually long one, and the Northern was close to the Canadian bank. Capt. Shepard states that his boat became unmanageable and sheered into the Russell as above stated. The vessel lies sunk in almost mid channel, being a little closer to the American side, and is a serious impediment to lake navigation as the channel is narrow and the current extremely rapid. The Kate Winslow passed the wreck safely and was picked up by the tug Goodnow and proceeded down the river.

STAR ROUTE BRIBERY.

After the jury in the star route cases had been excused for the day on the 7th, Judge Wylie said it had come to his ears that members of the jury had been approached in a most disgraceful way in attempts to influence their action. He had first heard of it about a week ago, when he had received most direct and positive information of this character. He had then advised the jury to say nothing about it as he did not wish to stop the progress of the case. Within the past twenty-four hours, however, these wolves that surrounded the jury had become fiercer and bolder, and upon being of one attempt more brazen and villainous than others, he had felt such indignation that he had nearly advised the jury to shoot down such a man on the spot. He had thought that, had not advised it. He now adjured the jury to spurn such men with the toe of their boot, to turn from them with scorn. He wished to warn these men that they were not to commit such outrages without punishment. After this trial perhaps an investigation would follow. Gen. Henkle immediately rose and said with much feeling that in the interest of his client he should demand an immediate investigation. The court said perhaps he would have it.

THE STAR ROUTE JURY.

Judge Wylie delivered his charge to the jury in the star route trial on the 8th commencing at the coming in of court. After the conclusion of the charge proper, which seemed to have been a very fair and plain one, counsel for defendants urged many prayers for further instruction, most of which the court declined to grant. The jury retired a little before 3 o'clock P. M., and came back at 10 o'clock. Shortly after 6 o'clock the jury reported to the court that they had agreed upon a verdict as to one defendant only. They were sent out again with instructions to come to an agreement, if possible, as to all.

Hon. Geo. R. Reeves, late Speaker of the House of Representatives, of Texas, is at the point of death from hydrophobia. He lives at Sherman.

THE ARKANSAS ELECTION.

The election in Arkansas resulted in a democratic majority on the state ticket of the usual number, but it is thought a slight gain was made by greenbackers and republicans in the legislature. Some bull-dozing is hinted at by a dispatch from Helena. One negro was shot.

WILL CONTINUE THE STRIKE.

The amalgamated association of iron workers held a meeting in Pittsburgh, the other day, 48 of the 68 lodges being represented. It was unanimously decided not to return to work under a compromise, and the strike is in the same condition as when commenced June 1st. The employees will now try the non-union experiment, and it is thought disaster will come to the amalgamated association.

A LABOR DEMONSTRATION.

A mammoth parade of workmen took place at New York on the 5th instant, 20,000 men being in line. All the trades were represented. The mottoes carried were: "Pay no rents"; "all men are born alike and equal"; "Labor built this republic—labor shall rule it"; "no man can make land, hence no individual should own it," etc. The procession was quite orderly.

A CIVIL CRISIS IN MEXICO.

It is understood that Gov. Ortiz has ordered the draft of all able bodied men in the state to sustain him.

A DECISION IN FAVOR OF JOHN CHINAMAN.

TEMPERANCE IN NEW YORK.

A convention has been called at Syracuse, New York, October 4th, to take steps to secure the submission to a popular vote of a prohibitory amendment to the constitution.

THE VERMONT ELECTION.

It is thought the Republican state ticket has been elected by from fifteen to twenty thousand majority. For the house of representatives 166 towns give 135 Republicans, 31 Democrats and four no choice. This gives the Democrats nearly double the representation they had in 1880, with more towns to hear from. For congress, Poland, (Rep.) in the second district had a majority over all on the 7th of only 500, and grave doubts of his election were expressed by friends, who feared additional returns would lose the office for him.

NEVADA DEMOCRATS.

The state convention was held at Eureka. The last national platform was reaffirmed. Jewett W. Adams was put in nomination for governor amid applause. The nominations were closed and Adams declared nominated by acclamation. Hon. George W. Cassidy was nominated for congressman. Col. M. N. Stone, of Virginia, was nominated for justice of the supreme court by acclamation.

ILLINOIS DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention met at Springfield recently. About 500 were present. Hon. W. A. J. Sparks was made temporary Chairman and Jno. Hise Secretary, with a long list of assistants. The usual committees were appointed and a recess taken till 2:30 p. m. Upon reassembling ex-Gov. John W. Palmer was elected permanent Chairman. His speech was an arraignment of the Republican party, President Arthur and Jay Hobbs. The members at large are W. J. Miz, Jno. H. Oberly, W. H. Green, J. W. Coppinger, S. Corning Judd and Herman Lieb. Hon. Alfred Grandorg, of Sangamon County, was nominated for State Treasurer; Henry Rash, of St. Clair, for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

YELLOW FEVER EPIDEMIC IN FLORIDA.

The Pensacola Board of Health has declared yellow fever epidemic. They had in 24 hours 16 new cases and three deaths. A terrific storm prevailed, having continued for a night and a day, which threatened fatal results. One of the greatest burdens inflicted by the epidemic is the inability of merchants to collect money due, all the country places having quarantined, necessitating a general suspension of business.

WORK OF THE UTAH COMMISSION.

Utah commissioners have rendered to the secretary of the interior a detailed report of their doings up to date. In conclusion they predict an honest registration and a satisfactory election.

CRIME.

ONE PHOTOGRAPHER LESS.

A. C. North, a leading photographer of Toledo, was found dead in his chair in his room adjoining his gallery in the Hall block. He had shot himself in the side of the head, the bullet passing through the top of his skull. There is no assigned cause for the act. The deceased was 45 years of age, married, possessed a good business and had accumulated considerable property. He usually appeared in the best of spirits.

MUR LAW IN INDIANA.

Mt. Vernon, Ind., has been threatened with a mob growing out of efforts to close the saloons on Sunday and at 11 o'clock nights. About 1 o'clock Sunday morning the residence of John Paul, City Marshal, was fired by the mob and burned to the ground. The Deputy City Marshal was terribly beaten by a gang of ruffians. Telegraph and telephones were guarded to prevent communication with neighboring towns.

BIG ROBBERY.

A Uniontown, Pa. special says: The safe of L. L. Crawford's store at Greensboro was burglarized between $10,000 and $12,000 on Sunday night. The burglars forced in a door near the combination lock and opened the safe with keys.

A BIG DEFAULTER.

The defaulters of Hunter, the absconding notary of Montreal, are now known to exceed $224,000.

MURDER OF AN OLD MAN.

Andrew Wittig, an old man of 74 years, keeper of a small grocery in East St. Louis, was brutally murdered at an early hour the other morning. It is not known exactly how the murder was committed, but circumstances show that the grocery was entered between midnight and daylight by burglars, and the supposition is that the old man, who resided in the upper part of the building with his family, heard a noise, got up, went down stairs, was assaulted by the robbers and dragged into the adjoining alley. At all events, his dead body, the skull smashed in with bricks, was found there by his wife about 6 o'clock. A clue points to a white man and a negro, who left for Cairo on the steamer Continental early in the morning, as the murderers, and measures have been taken to have them arrested at the first point the steamer lands.

A FIGHT AND A MORTAL WOUND.

John H. Johnston, mayor of the city of Danville, West Va., shot John E. Hatcher, late chief of police, inflicting what is believed to be a mortal wound. The parties met casually in the evening and Hatcher demanded an apology for a statement of Johnston that Hatcher had not accounted for fines he had collected. The apology was refused, a scuffle ensued and Johnston shot Hatcher. Johnston surrendered himself and was admitted to bail for $5,000.

Orders have been received at Woolwich to dispatch 4,000 troops to Egypt—3,000 to Alexandria and 1,000 to Ismailia.

WHAT THE SULTAN SAYS.

The sultan's proclamation to the Egyptians has been issued. It declares Arabi Pasha a rebel for disobeying the sultan's orders, thereby provoking English intervention. The proclamation concludes by exhorting all Egyptians to obey the khedive.

WHAT SPENCER WILL DO.

The lord lieutenant announces that he will have careful inquiry made into the recent conduct and previous character of the officers, and it is expected about 220 of the 284 dismissed constables will be reinstated, only the ringleaders being excluded. The police are not altogether satisfied with the reply of Earl Spencer, as it leaves them in almost the same uncertainty as before. It is officially denied the policemen returned to work in consequence of a tacit understanding. On the contrary they were informed they would be dismissed if they did not return to service.

THE GREEK PLOT.

Tricoupoli, the Greek Prime Minister, has telegraphed to the Greek Consul at Alexandria for information in regard to Antonio Paulo, arrested for connection with the rumored conspiracy of Greeks in Egypt. The Consul replied the object was to massacre the Khedive and the Christians and to attack the forts; that Antonio Paulo was the only Greek implicated, and that he was appointed consular agent to Soudt, but was never formally installed.

STEPS TO INDEMNIFY SUFFERERS.

The Egyptian Council of Ministers is now engaged with the question of indemnifying inhabitants for losses sustained by incendiaries or pillage. It is almost a certainty that the Ministry will propose to the powers to appoint an international commission to settle the claims, the decisions of the commission to be final.

THE NAVY TO BE REORGANIZED.

Gen. Wolsey has requested the presence of the naval brigade in the army in order that the navy may share the honor of the victory. In compliance with this request a brigade consisting of 100 blue jackets, ten officers and 100 boys of the Gilling guns will leave Port Said for Ismailia.

ENGLAND TO HAVE HER WAY.

The London Times, in a leading article, says: "The government is concluding a military convention with Turkey, is preparing that the sultan has seen the folly of trying any longer to thwart the policy of England. Two European powers at least have intimated at Constantinople that England would be perfectly justified in breaking off negotiations which have been so wantonly prolonged."

BACK TO THEIR BEATS.

Earl Spencer, in reinstating the dismissed policemen granted them a free pardon, but expressed regret and surprise that they should have been induced to take the step they did.

STILL UNSETTLED.

Notwithstanding the report that Turkey and Greece had arrived at an understanding on the frontier question, the matter seems to hang in the balance yet. A dispatch from Athens, Sept. 7th, said: Nothing has been decided in regard to the Turkey Greek frontier question. It is said that M. Camondouli, Greek Minister at Constantinople, will have a further conference Saturday with Said Pasha, the Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs, and is believed if no decision is then reached, hostilities will be resumed. It is understood M. Camondouli has been instructed not to yield any of the five points in dispute.

An official report from Gen. Wolsey, dated September 9th, gives an outline of the engagement at Kassassin: "The enemy reconnoitred our advanced posts with considerable force of all arms at daybreak this morning. Gen. Willis advanced and attacked them driving them back with loss. We have taken four guns. Our loss is very trifling. The enemy have retired into their works, from which they are now firing at 5,000 yard range. I shall return to camp at Kassassin shortly with all the forces. I have moved my camp there as the railway, canal and telegraph are now working fairly. We have found and buried the body of Lieut. Gribble." Another report says 100 English soldiers were killed and that the loss to the enemy was heavy. There were 13,000 men with 12 guns in the engagement under Arabi, and 5 guns and many prisoners were taken.

INDIGNANT ARABS.

The sultan's proclamation against Arabi Pasha has caused considerable agitation among the Arabs who feel that Arabi is the savior of Islam, and it is thought Arabi will issue a counter proclamation against the sultan. It is reported that Arabi has expelled all Turks and Circassians from his camp.

BACK TO HIS THRONE.

Through the intervention of China, the king of Corea has been reinstated to his throne. The Chinese authorities seized the king's relative, who was the originator of the insurrection and usurper of the throne, and took him to the Flowery Kingdom to be dealt with as his case may merit. It does not appear that all the excitement has subsided in Corea, but it is probable no further outrages will occur, since the leader of the anti-foreign element has been taken from the province.
